

Senate Bill 108

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What does the bill say and what are the requirements?

SB 108 is a bill designed to improve teacher capacity in computer science education. By the 2024-2025 school year, all high schools and all middle schools in local school systems should offer a course in computer science. There is a progressive implementation.

School Year	By the beginning of the school year
2022 – 2023	High School: Each local system is required to have at least 1 high school offering a course in computer science Middle School: All middle schools in the system are required to offer instruction in exploratory computer science Elementary School: All in the system are recommended to offer instruction in exploratory computer science
2023 – 2024	High School: At least 50% of the high schools in the system are required to offer a course in computer science
2024 – 2025	High School: All high schools in the system are required to offer a course in computer science

2. Regarding the legislation, what counts as Computer Science?

There are 11 High school courses and 3 middle school courses that currently count as Computer Science.

High School	Middle School
AP Computer Science A AP Computer Science Principles Computer Science Principles Introduction to Cybersecurity Advanced Cybersecurity IB Computer Science Year 1 IB Computer Science Year 2 Embedded Computing Game Design: Animation and Simulation Programming, Games, Apps, and Society Web Development Introduction to Python Coding for Fintech	Foundations of Secure Information Systems Foundations of Interactive Design Foundations of Computer Programming MS Computer Science I MS Computer Science II

3. What is the full language of the legislation?

The full law can be found here.

